HISTORY

Spring Gardens is of great historical importance to Manchester. For at least two centuries from 1500, its springs provided the city with its main source of water. Around this essential facility, Manchester developed socially, and over the course of the 19th and 20th centuries Spring Gardens became the centre of the north west banking industry. It's status as a blue-chip business address remains.

FIRST-CLASS PLACE

LOCATION

The heart of commercial Manchester sits within an elongated diamond shape between Mosley Street to the east, Princess Street to the south, Cross Street to the west and Market Street to the north.

Right at the centre of that lies Spring Gardens – at the apex of the key King Street thoroughfare, the vital artery that links Piccadilly Gardens to the east with Deansgate and Spinningfields to the west. This is where The Chancery sits.

The Chancery is surrounded on all sides by buildings of grace and quiet authority. Many of them are historical, with noble stone façades; some are new, with sleek glass walls reaching skywards. All are inspiring.

CONNECTIVITY

The Chancery's location makes it easily accessible from all parts of the city and beyond. It's within a few minutes' walk of the key St. Peter's Square Metrolink hub, with mainline railway stations Piccadilly and Victoria both ten minutes' walk away. Bus services from Piccadilly Gardens, just 400 metres away, run to all parts of the city.
